THE DEPORTING LAW: GREAT HARDSHIP TO IMMIGRANTS AT QUEBEC One Hundry Special Despatch to The Globe

The Globe (1844-1936); May 28, 1908; ProQuest Historical Newspapers: The Globe and Mail pg. 5

THE DEPORTING LAW.

GREAT HARDSHIP TO IMMI-GRANTS AT QUEBEC.

One Hundred and Fifty of the Arrivals by the Steamer Montreal Held and Will be Returned Unless Friends Here Come to Their Relief.

(Special Despatch to The Globe.) Quebec, May 27 .- Poor immigrants coming to Canada by the various steamship lines are going through a very unpleasant experience on their arrival at Quebec these days, and the steamship companies are called upon to share in their misfortune. Almost every steamer from Europe which has arrived at the port of Quebec since the opening of navigation this season has had to reship and bring back a portion of the steerage passengers deported by the immigration branch of the Department of the Interior. This morning 750 Galicians, steerage passengers from Antwerp, were landed from the steamer Montreal at the breakwater, and ushered into the immigration buildings for medical and civil examination. The great majority were stalwart young and middle-aged men, booked for all parts of the Do-minion. But they were not all destined to pass the severe examination of the civil inspectors.

Three hundred were held up second examination for want of the necessary $25 in cash, besides their rail-way ticket, and when this number was for way licket, and when this number the gone over a second time one hundred and fifty, who managed to qualify by finding the money hidden about their money hidden about their finding the money hidden about person, were allowed to proceed. person, were allowed to proceed. The other (so) were sent to the House of De-tention, which is now crowded to its utmost capacity with undesirable immi-grants, given a chance to receive as-sistance from their relatives or friends when her presended them to the courter The alstance from their relatives or friends who had preceded them to this country or undergo the painful necessity of de-portation. The severity of the law gov-erning immigration these days is hard upon the foreigners coming to seek a home and better their condition in Can-bourd the parameter of these laws the rese ada. Ignorant of these laws, the poor people are induced to take passage by agents abroad, who no doubt hold out every inducement of success. The Government immigration official on this point has a sad duty to per-Ignorant of these laws, the poor ada.

on this point has a said duty to per-form, but the law is inexorable, and he enforces it to the letter.

cities of Canada are crowded with foreign principal The at present overcrowded with foreign labor, who are fast becoming an ex-pensive public charge, and this evil must be remedied, even at the experse of the influx of immigration. On the other hand, every latitude is given legitimate farmers and domestic servants, who can easily find a means of living, and the supply is not equal to the demand.

Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.