

RUSH OF IMMIGRANTS OF GOOD CLASS COMING

May Opens Well and Indications Encouraging — Big Demand for Farms.

Toronto, May 3.—Indications that this month is to surpass all previous marks in immigration traffic was shown this morning when two special trains arrived from Halifax with passengers from the Tunisian and the Anunsian, one train carried 167 for Ontario, and 347 for the North-west, the other had 217 for this province, and 32 were booked for Western Canada.

"We are simply overwhelmed with applications for farm help. The demand is double the supply," commented an immigrant officer this morning. "During April over 6,000 immigrants passed through our hands, and two-thirds were placed on farms."

"Are they a thrifty class of people?"

"So far they are fine type of immigrant, just the kind this country needs—willing to work, and fairly well-to-do. They are a husky looking lot with many mechanics. This month will be the biggest month in history, for immigration traffic."
