

Immigration officers at Sarnia held their breath when $77,000 in gold was spread before them by a party of Greeks, four men, four women, and their children. They came from Georgia, and were allowed to proceed to Toronto.