

Prisoner of War—“From information received,” officers of the local military district had reason to believe that Major-General Kuntz, of the German army, was amongst the guests at the Royal Alexandra hotel last evening. However, all efforts to locate him failed. If he is found he will be made a prisoner of war and steps have been taken to watch for him on trains crossing the boundary.