

WANTS LAW AGAINST ALIENS ENFORCED

LONDON, Aug. 6.— While most of the papers today counsel the courteous treatment of Germans who are compelled to remain in England, the Daily Mail in an editorial urges a vigorous application of the law controlling aliens, saying:

"There are too many Germans in England and unless they are kept under close observation their presence may be a source of great danger. Now that Europe is in arms we must not shrink from any measure necessary to preserve our national existence. These uninvited guests will consume food needed for the British people and their maintenance will absorb funds that cannot be spared."

The aliens restriction order—the Legislation for which was passed through all stages in the House of Commons yesterday forbids aliens to have firearms, explosives, autos, or motor cycles, without permission from the police.

A series of royal proclamations were published today. One revokes the prohibition against the importation of arms in Ireland, and others set forth the illegality of trading with the enemy, prohibits British vessels carrying contraband of war between foreign ports and declares that British subjects contributing to a loan raised on behalf of the German Emperor, or contracting with the German Government will be guilty of high treason.
