

NATIONS AT WAR

ALL REPRESENTED

BY MANY IN CITY

Total Population of Montreal Given as Half a Million.

CATHOLICS LEAD RELIGIOUS BODIES

Anglicans Come Next — Jews, Presbyterians and Methodists Follow.

That there are many Germans, Poles, Russians, Belgians, Austrians, Hungarians and other nationalities in Montreal is shown in the last census, which was published in February of the present year, on the figures collected in 1911. Since then these nationalities have been increased by many thousands.

The total population was shown as half a million. By nationalities the figures of origin are as follows:

English	82,836
Irish	36,243
Scotch	20,927
Other British	402
Total British	121,128

French	208,878
Jews	27,948
Italians	7,013
Germans	2,502
Polish	2,497
Chinese	1,187
Russians	1,072
Belgians	1,036
Austrian	548
Bukovinian	37
Galician	245
Hungarian	32
Ruthenian	39
Total Austro-Hungarian	921
Scandinavian	772
Greek	615
Turkish	420
Negro	282
Bulgarian	251
Swiss	239
Dutch	207
Indians	42
Flms	17
Hindus	5
Japanese	5
Various	734
Unspecified	2,742
Total	470,480

VARIOUS RELIGIONS.

In the religious division the Roman Catholics, with 355,000 people credited to their faith, are in the lead. They are over 70 per cent. of the whole. The Anglicans, Jews, Presbyterians, and Methodists are