

GERMAN STOKERS CAPTURED.

New York, Aug. 14.—Thirty-five German stokers of the crew of the United Fruit steamer Zacapa, which reached here today from Colombia, Colon and Kingston, are prisoners of war at Kingston instead of being on their way to Germany as reservists, ashore. When Capt. Towell refused to obey the command of the German consul at Colon and send the stokers ashore. When Capt. Towell refused to land the stokers, three of them jumped overboard and swam ashore.
