

TWO GERMANS ARRESTED.

Said They Were Bookkeepers on G.T.
R.; Suspected as Reservists.

(Special Despatch to The Globe.)

London, Ont., Aug. 26.—Detectives Egleton and Down arrested two supposed German army reservists at the Grand Trunk station this morning. They gave their names as Hermar Schmitz and Fritz Voss, 427 Ridou street, London, bookkeepers for the Grand Trunk Railway. Each had plenty of money and a one-way ticket to Detroit. Official-looking German papers were taken from them and the prisoners will be sent to Kingston.

---