

MORE SUSPECTS COME

WINDSOR SENT NINE TO FORT HENRY WEDNESDAY.

They Were Austrians and Were Regarded as Unsafe—Montreal Likely to Send Big Batch.

There are now twenty-six suspects in confinement at Fort Henry. The last to arrive were nine from Windsor on Wednesday evening. When the evening train arrived from the west an armed guard in charge of the men got off the train at the outer station and proceeded to Fort Henry with the prisoners. It is stated that the nine men who are Austrians were arrested in Windsor as it was feared that they were not safe to be at large.

Up until Wednesday there were seventeen men in confinement. Twelve of that number came from Sarnia on Tuesday evening. One came from Pembroke on Tuesday afternoon while the other four men were gathered in some weeks ago by the chief of police at Gananoque.

The military heads expect that about eighty men will be brought up from Montreal on Thursday evening and placed in the fort.

There is plenty of room to keep all the men that the militia department desires to send to the city. It is understood that it is the intention of the authorities to keep four or five men in each room. There appears to be no reason why any of the men should complain as the rooms which they are locked up in at the fort are a great deal better than some of the men have been accustomed to. The meals are good and each man is furnished with a good spring mattress.

It is understood the militia department will keep a number of the members of the 14th regiment on duty at Fort Henry until the war is over as a very close watch must be kept on the foreigners. The quarters which will be occupied by the riflemen are to be overhauled and will be put in first-class condition.

Many of the men who did duty at Fort Henry in 1885 can well remember the big time they had during the winter months.

The militia department will be in close touch with J. H. Berger, the ex-German officer released on Tuesday afternoon. Before this man was allowed out on parole he was forced to sign papers to the effect that he would report to the militia authorities at stated periods. Failing to do this he is liable to serious punishment. On Wednesday Berger was at the armouries and had a talk with some of the heads. It is understood that he has been forbidden to leave Canada while the war is in progress.
