

An immigration officer from Toronto arrived in Pembroke yesterday and with Constable Marleau went to Meath station and arrested a Bulgarian there who is charged with a violation of the alien labor act by importing foreigners for work in this country and collecting fees for procuring employment for them. He was a foreman on the C. N. R. construction work and was taken to Toronto this morning for trial.