

Sent To Fort Henry.

The Ottawa Free Press says: According to a story in circulation one German whose residence is in the county of Russel was requested to take out his papers, and on his refusal was shipped off to prison at Kingston, where he will be held until after the war or he is ready to take out naturalization papers.