

Registration of Local Bulgarians

Rush at Bureau for Alien Enemies is Just About Over

Four hundred and fifty-two Bulgarians have been registered at the offices of the Registrar of Alien Enemies, 34 Adelaide street east. This is exclusive of over a hundred at work in the vicinity of Toronto whose names have been taken by Detective Maurer. Officers at the registration bureau are of the opinion that the rush is about over. Although only a few were registered yesterday morning over sixty were attended to in the evening. Detectives Murray and Plainclothesman Hess having to work until after ten o'clock.

Only one Bulgarian registered today until noon, but a goodly number are expected to-night. The Bulgarians continue to behave excellently and give the police no trouble.
