

28 WAR PRISONERS THIS WEEK.

Four more prisoners of war were captured here yesterday by the immigration authorities and locked up in the armoury. Harry Barker, who tried to pass as a Swiss, was apprehended while endeavoring to cross the border. Upon examination by the immigration authorities he proved to be a German.

Three Austrians were arrested at the upper bridge last night when endeavoring to make their way to the American side. One of them had $200. Since Monday 28 Austrians and Germans have been captured by the immigration officials.
