

More War Prisoners — Another dozen German and Austrian prisoners have arrived at Fort Osborne barracks and others are on their way. Today there are forty-five held there and they will be kept until the war is over. This last contingent arrived from the west yesterday in charge of constables of the R.N.W.M.P.