PRISONERS OF WAR.

Winnipeg, Nov. 3.—Eleven more young Germans and Austrians, who attempted to leave to join the armies of the Empire's enemies, have been caught at Regina by the R.N.W.M.P. and brought to Winnipeg. There are now 65 prisoners of war at the Fort Garry barracks, where they are well cared for but closely guarded.