

Foreigner Talks Big—For slandering the Polish nation and expressing the wish that he could get back to Germany to fight against the allies, Paul J. Barycki was arrested by the city police and taken to Fort Osborne barracks. There he appeared before Lt.-Col. Lindsay and upon promising to curb his tongue was allowed to go. However he will have to report regularly to the authorities.