

WELLAND'S TROUBLE WITH FOREIGNERS

Gangs Stealing Coal From M.C.R. Cars.

A record has been made in Welland police court in one day this week, seventeen cases having been disposed of, including theft of coal from M.C.R. cars by foreigners, two more cases of theft, an alleged blind pig, foreigners mixed up in a fight, and vaga.

On Friday morning at 9 o'clock M.C.R. Detective Moynihan interrupted a gang of foreigners, who live in the industrial section, stealing coal from a car in a M.C.R. train held up at the Diamond. Three were captured and brought into court that day. John Zonnyuck was sent down for 30 days and Mrs. John Basaka and Mrs. Victoria Huduka were each assessed $5 and costs. Mrs. Basaka's husband was locked up for swearing in court. Mrs. Huduka has two little children and her husband is away from town looking for work.

On Monday morning three more of the gang, Sam Loviangi, Oslova Shalaitch, and Ivan Samardgrie were fined $5 and costs each.
