

MORE PRISONERS OF WAR

Were Brought To Fort Henry on Sunday.

A big round-up was made at Montreal and other adjacent points on Saturday, when more prisoners of war were taken into custody by the authorities and transferred to Kingston. Sixty-five were landed in the city on the 2:40 C.T.R. train on Sunday afternoon, and taken to Fort Henry. On the way to Kingston one of the prisoners jumped the train near Brockville, but after a chase, was rounded up. The guards who brought the prisoners to the city left on the 1:40 C.T.R. train Monday morning, and will return again with about sixty more prisoners. When these arrive there will be over five hundred suspects imprisoned at Fort Henry.
