

Latest German Promises.

Letters sent to Germans and Austrians ~~interned~~ in Toronto indicate that the German military party promises now that the war will be over by April, and also show a growing feeling in Germany that unless peace is made then, there will be a great rebellion to dethrone the Kaiser and establish a republic.

... for Great