

ST. JOE ISLAND TO GET GERMAN COLONY NEAR TENBY BAY

THE STAR

Advance Agent Has Chosen
the Land and Made All Arrangements.

Mr. G. S. Lay, of Richards Landing, was in the city today bringing up from St. Joe an old man destined for the House of Refuge.

Mr. Lay reports there will be quite an influx of settlers to St. Joe this year. A small German colony from Alberta is making arrangements to take up land at Tenby Bay, an advance agent having chosen the land.

"In addition to this," said Mr. Lay to the Star, "quite a number of farms have changed hands and we expect some of our own back from the northwest who have become dissatisfied out there."
