

GERMANS MAKE ESCAPE.

HALIFAX, N.S., Jan. 31—Nine German prisoners of war who were interned at the city jail, escaped today. Four of them were rearrested, but the others are still at large. A court martial has been ordered to determine the responsibility for the escape.