

CONSUL AWAITS REPORT FROM STANLEY BARRACKS

RICHARD ULBRICH'S DETENTION IN HANDS OF LIEUT.-COL. ELLIOTT.

Friends of Richard Ullrich, the Mount Dennis confectioner who is interned as an alien enemy at Stanley Barracks, are circulating a petition for the purpose of obtaining his release. Mrs. Ullrich and three friends held a consultation with Mr. Julius D. Dreher, the American Consul, on Saturday, at the close of which he advised the party to take the matter up with Lieut.-Col. Elliot at the detention camps.

The party went to Stanley Barracks, but whether or not they were successful in securing freedom for Ullrich has not been officially reported to Mr. Dreher. According to Mrs. Ullrich, her husband was born in Germany thirty-four years ago. They were married in 1900, and her husband secured his naturalization papers in the United States in 1904. Subsequently they took up a homestead near Halleybury. At her request, Mrs. Ullrich says, her husband abandoned the farm on account of the rough life, and purchased a business two years ago in Mount Dennis. They have five children, the eldest being thirteen years old and the youngest one year old.

Lieut.-Col. H. M. Elliot stated last night that he advised Mr. Bayliss, the Mount Dennis Magistrate, on whose information Ullrich was interned, to communicate with the Commissioner of Police, Ottawa, on the matter. Ullrich, it seems, became an American citizen many years ago, but for the last ten years he has been residing in Canada.
