

ASKED FOR EXEAT; BUCHS IS INTERNED

Gave the Impression That He Would Leave, Anyway;
-But He Will Not

MANY STRANGE DEVICES

All Manner of Reasons for Co-ing to United States
Invented

Reinhold Buchs told the Registrar of Alien Enemies that if he were not given an exeat to go to the United States he would go without one—at least that is the way the Registrar understood it. Mr. A. J. Russell Snow, K.C., refused the desired document, and promptly interned Buchs. This happened on Saturday night. Buchs claims to have land and a wife in Florida.

"Paul Wild says he wants to go to Florida because he is not wanted in this country and is called a 'Bloody German.' He thinks he would like to look at Florida anyway." So read his application for an exeat. Paul did not impress the Registrar favorably, and left the office with a large sized "grouch."

Not a Big Banker.

Conrad Herburg applied for an exeat in Vernon, B.C., but was refused. He said the people there did not like him and broke his windows, so he left. He signed his application for an exeat stating his occupation as "Banker"—not a big banker with lots of money he explained: just a small banker.

Required to state his reasons for desiring to leave Canada, he replied: "Only temporary during German boykotte. Is sure to return again after the war to his estate in Lilloet. "Why did he come to Canada?" "To buy land and to get acquainted." But the Registrar here was not satisfied and decided he had better keep his $200 in Canada.

Lotte Schwarz, who gives among her "personalities" "Born: 8.II.87. Bayreuth (Bavaria). Nationality: German. Profession: Children's Nurse. Confession: Evangelish-Luth-erish." All that did not get her across the border.

Gottfried Moser fared no better. He wanted to leave Canada "to obtain money in the United States to start a factory in Canada." He gave his occupation as "importer," and stated that he was taking $25 away from Canada with him.

Paul Even gave the impression that he was too clever. He had been over to the Island too often. If he knows anything he will keep it in his head, and that will stay in Canada.

Theodora Schatte, governess, will be allowed to go.
