

Richard Ulrick, of Mount Dennis, Ont., a naturalized citizen of the United States, who has resided in Canada for the last ten years, has been released from Stanley barracks after a week's imprisonment. Ulrick, it is said, was arrested as the result of a practical joke, the jokers having denounced him as a German to a justice of the peace they desired to have some fun with. It would be fitting punishment were the humorists themselves to be interned in a concentration camp for the period of the war.
