

TO REINSTATE HUNT

The Globe (1844-1936); Feb 5, 1915; ProQuest Historical Newspapers: The Globe and Mail
pg. 13

TO REINSTATE HUNT.

London Utilities Commission Will Re-consider Glaubitz's Case, Too.

(Canadian Press Despatch.)

London, Ont., Feb. 4.—The London Public Utilities Commission this afternoon decided to reinstate A. O. Hunt, Assistant General Manager of the Commission, who had been relieved of his duties pending an inquiry into the charge against General Manager H. J. Glaubitz, who is accused of helping a German reservist out of the country. The Commissioners also decided to consider the reinstatement of Mr. Glaubitz.

LOZIER MOTOR CO. SOLD.

$4,000,000 Plant and Property Goes for $840,000.

(Special Despatch to The Globe.)

Detroit, Feb. 4.—All property of Lozier Motor Car Company bankruptcy estate was sold in the Bankruptcy Court here this afternoon for $840,000. The plant and property was valued at $4,000,000. and for liquidation purposes was given a value by the receiver of $2,069,000.

The purchasers are Charles Shongood of New York, Frank Brothers & Harris of Detroit and Charles Frieburg of New York.