

PERSONAL INTELLIGENCE

Col. Gaudet, of St. Johns, is at the Ritz-Carlton.

Hon. C. J. Doherty, minister of justice, came to Montreal from Ottawa yesterday afternoon and will return today for the debate on the Address from the Throne. While in Montreal, the minister will investigate matters relating to the handling of alien enemies.

Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux, ex-minister of marine, beside continuing his Montreal office, will join in practice in Ottawa with his brother, Mr. Auguste Lemieux, K.C., who has been a leading lawyer in the Capital for many years past. Hon. Mr. Lemieux has just completed his course of lectures on public and private international law at Laval University. He is an L.L.B. of Ottawa and Laval, and a fellow of the Royal Society of Canada and president of the French section. The new Ottawa legal firm will be Lemieux & Lemieux.
