

Lieut. Watson and Privates Angus Armor and Bert Trotman went to Smith's Falls last Friday morning with three prisoners from Petawawa, en route for Port Henry, at Kingston. They were three Germans who had been weeded out of the Austrians, the only kind of prisoners that are supposed to be detained at Petawawa.