

Collected From Aliens.

Ottawa, Ont., March 4.—John Martin, Austrian interpreter in the alien enemy registration office here, was found guilty to-day of collecting money from aliens under false pretences. He was remanded for sentence. It was shown that he had exacted fees for registrations, and in some cases took money from foreigners, on the ground that otherwise they would be interned. He pocketed the money.