GERMAN BARON TAKEN TO FORT HENRY PRISON

Baron Von Polenz, Prominent in Montreal Society Circles, Charged With Espionage.

Baron Von Polenz, formerly captain in a Saxon Cavalry regiment, who has been for three years connected with financial ventures in the Cobalt district, was arrested on a charge of espionage yesterday by Inspector Parkinson of the Dominion Police and taken to the military prison at Fort Henry, Kingston.

Baron Von Polenz was prominent in Montreal society circles and was a member of the Garrison Club of Quebec, a popular resort of the officers of the Canadian Permanent Force. He had been reporting to the registrar of alien enemies at Montreal, but his actions becoming suspicious he has been under surveillance for some time.
