

AUTHORITIES ROUND UP DANGEROUS ALIEN ENEMY

GERMAN RESERVIST WROTE THREATENING LETTER TO AN- OTHER RESERVIST.

Valentine Solm, a German reservist, was interned yesterday because the authorities decided that he could not consistently with the safety of the public be allowed at large. It is alleged by the Aliens Officer that Solm wrote a threatening letter to another German reservist named Adolf Miller. The communication is said to have charged Miller with a serious offence, and to have demanded money in return for Solm's silence. The money was supposed to be paid to George Miller, alias Hans Stockberg, a prisoner of war. Solm was born in Bochom, Germany, and has been living in Canada for four years. His present address is 27 St. Patrick street, Toronto. He is thirty years of age, and is not a naturalized Canadian citizen.
