

Nerlich Case To Open On Wednesday

Counsel For Defence and Prosecution Come to Agreement

The Nerlich case will not go on to-morrow as expected, and as tentatively arranged by Mr. Justice Middleton at the last sitting of the Assizes on Monday, May 31st.

Mr. G. W. Mason, of the firm of Macdonald, Shepley, Donald and Mason, acting for the defence, stated to The Daily News to-day that it had agreed between the parties to put the case off for another day—till Wednesday.

The defence will be conducted, as in the previous case against Mr. Nerlich for conspiring to commit an indictable offence, by Mr. I. F. Hellmuth, K.C.; Mr. George F. Shepley, K.C., and Mr. Mason.

Mr. R. H. Greer, County Crown Attorney, will assist Mr. W. C. Mikel, K.C., Crown Counsel, in the prosecution.

It is understood that Mr. Justice Sutherland will be presiding judge.
