

Mayor Cater was quoted yesterday as suggesting that the interned aliens should be sent to camp at Sewell. This should have been a camp at the side of the rifle range, two or three miles east of the city. It is understood today that this suggestion may be continued by the authorities in Winnipeg who have the matter of guarding the aliens in hand.