

Local Italians have been enraptured over the entrance of Italy into the European struggle and their spirit of rejoicing found vent on Tuesday evening, when, under the leadership of Mr Pat. Ell, they engaged the Boys' Band and paraded the streets with colors flying. Local Italians have for many weeks been anxious to see their country engage Austria and all of them are ready when the call comes to return home for service in the army.