

UN GREATFUL ENEMY ALIEN

The Globe (1844-1936); Jun 12, 1915; ProQuest Historical Newspapers: The Globe and Mail

pg. 8

UNGRATEFUL ENEMY ALIEN.

Anti-British sympathies which he did not hesitate to express on Queen street west on Thursday night resulted in the internment yesterday of James Hozea, an Austrian living at 96 Elizabeth street. For some weak Hozea has been lying through the charity of Canadians. He was arrested by Detective Maurer.

Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.