

It is understood that there are two soldiers with German names in camp at Barriefeld. They will be brought before their O. C. soon to determine whether they are of German birth or not.