

Took Oath of Allegiance.

Belleville, Ont., June 16.—Ernest Shoener, who has been a resident of this city for some years, was apprehended by the military police, and was accused of being a German and not having taken out the oath of allegiance. He has lived here upwards of thirty years. He was allowed his liberty upon taking the oath of allegiance and promising to report to the proper authorities.