

Peter Kirshak, a young Austrian employed in the G.T.R. shops at Stratford, has been placed under arrest on suspicion of being about to leave for Austria. Many letters from the United States and his native land were found in his luggage.