

Constable White took another batch of five Austrians down to Calgary on Tuesday. They were taken in charge by the militia authorities and wended their way to Lethbridge camp sometime later.