RUSSIAN IS ACQUITTED ON SERIOUS CHARGES

(Special Despatch to The Globe.)

Parry Sound, June 18.—The criminal business of the Parry Sound Assizes was concluded this afternoon by the finishing of the two charges against Samuel Kuti, a Russian, charged with attempted murder of a woman named Makaski, and of grievously wounding her husband, Sam Makaski.

The evidence was taken through an interpreter, and was very contradictory, the defence denying the alleged attack. The jury returned a verdict of not guilty, and by direction of the court, and with the assent of the Crown Prosecutor, Mr. Evan H. McLean of Newcastle, the same jury was directed to return a verdict of not guilty in the charge of wounding.

LITTLE GIRL DROWNED.

Lindsay, June 18.—Ruth Lawson, the five-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George S. Lawson of Toronto, was drowned Thursday in the vicinity of the C.P.R. bridge near Bobcaygeon.

Mrs. Lawson's sister, Mrs. Gluckman, took Mr. Lawson's children, Ruth and a smaller brother, down to the dock. They crossed the channel and anchored the canoe. Later on in raising the anchor the canoe upset, throwing all occupants into the river. Mrs. Gluckman caught the boy, but Ruth drifted away, face downward, although not sinking. Help was soon at hand and the others were rescued.

Mr. Lawson has been summering at Esturion Park, Bobcaygeon, for some years past, and only yesterday morning he returned to the city.

ALIENS BACK AT WORK.

Internment of Fifty Hindered Malleable Iron Works.

(Special Despatch to The Globe.)

Guelph, June 18.—On May 15 some fifty Austrians and Hungarians were rounded up by the police and sent under military escort to Toronto, where they were interned at the Provincial detention camp. Eighteen of the men were employed at the International Malleable Iron Works. The management felt that the loss of the men would handicap the business, and considerable expense would be entailed to break in new men to the work.

The General Superintendent, Mr. W. H. Burgess, communicated with the military authorities at Ottawa with
