

Eighteen of the Austrians and Hungarians rounded up at Guelph on May 15th, and sent to Toronto for internment, have been released at the order of the Government and are again at work in the International Malleable Iron Works.