

It is reported that the alien prisoners at the Monashee camp are doing well, and already a good slice of road has been cleared and graded under exceptional difficulties. Camp supplies arrive regularly, and ordinary routine is already the order of the day.