

(From London's Evening Standard)

ALLEGED GERMAN SPY CAUGHT

The military secret service was busy to-day. He arrested a man from the U. S. whom the military authorities have been on the lookout for for some time.

He is a German and was caught at the upper bridge, and had in his possession plans, sketches and a powerful telescope. His case is being investigated.

Five Austrians were arrested to-day, attempting to leave the country. They were taken to the armoury and will be interned.