

Prisoners of War Taken Into Camp

The Globe (1844-1936); Jul 19, 1915; ProQuest Historical Newspapers: The Globe and Mail

pg. 7

Prisoners of War Taken Into Camp

Twenty-five Austrians and Germans who have been in the detention camp at Stanley Barracks were taken last night to the Government detention camp at Hearst. A special car for the accommodation of the prisoners of war was attached to the regular G. T. R. train for North Bay. They were in charge of a special guard detailed to remain on duty until they reach their destination.

Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.