

PRISONERS OF WAR REMOVED

---

Nearly all the prisoners of war were taken to Stanley Barracks this morning. There were 19 of them, with an escort under Capt. Cameron.

They will be distributed, according to nationality, among the various internment camps in Ontario. They, for the most part, were a merry looking lot, and seemed to take their loss of freedom philosophically.