

SEDITION IS CHARGED

Presbyterian Minister Appears Before
Magistrate at Calgary

CALGARY, July 24.—Mr. A. Ealer, the Presbyterian minister summoned on a charge of sedition, appeared in the police court this morning and was remanded until Wednesday. Magistrate Sanders intimated that he would like to see the case settled out of court, as he did not think it advisable in the present state of things to do anything which might tend to excite sectional feeling in the community.

The charge arises out of certain comments on Roman Catholicism which Mr. Ealer is alleged to have made in a sermon he preached on July 11.
