

Next Wednesday morning about 40 interned Austrians will be sent via the Algoma Central to the concentration camp at Kapuskasing in the Clay Belt. They will be in charge of Captain Lambton, one of the officers at the camp, who is coming down to the Sault on other business and will be returning at that time.