

Caught With Explosives

Kingston, Ont., July 27. — This morning constables rounded up a German who had a valise filled with explosives. He had been hiding in the cellar of a vacant house near the gas tank. It is believed that the German was laying a plot to blow up the works. He was interned.