

Fourteen more Austrians were taken in charge by the local military authorities today and have been interned at the canal.