

A German who entered the ranks of the 54th regiment at Vancouver, by representing himself to be a Swiss reservist, anxious to fight on the side of the allies, has been arrested and will be made the subject of a court martial.