

German Threatens To Blow Up N.S. Bridge

AMHERST, N.S., Aug. 20—Fritz Welland, a German miner, was arrested at the Jiggins mines and brought to the internment camp at Amherst today. It is alleged that he made threats while travelling in the train that he would blow up the Mac-can bridge, Masonic hall, and the bridge at River Hebert.